TESTIMONIALS FROM 2023

"Last week we were at London Wine Fair, immersing ourselves in the best the #winetrade has to offer. The London Wine Fair gives us the opportunity to taste current vintages, engage with winemakers, meet producers looking for UK representation, catch up with old friends, attend industry briefings and taste literally hundreds of wines...It's a major week in the calendar of the wine trade and I love the anticipation, the buzz and of course, the stories behind the wines."

Rebecca Hewes, Owner, Handpicked Wine Box Company

"Found it incredibly educational & rewarding being able to meet so many people within the industry that will now become the start of a long-term and valuable working-relationship."

Faye Rillstone, Associate Consultant, New Chapter Consulting

"What an absolute stonker of a London Wine Fair the great and the good of the wine world enjoyed over the past three days. The show felt alive with the buzz of trying new wines, exploring changing vintages and styles, meeting old friends and creating new relationships."

Kelly J Stevenson, DipWSET, Consultant, Well Known Brands Ltd

"We are thrilled to share the excitement that the London Wine Fair has brought us. From day one, it has been an extraordinary experience, attracting wine enthusiasts from all corners of the globe who have flocked to our stand to explore and indulge in our exquisite offerings."

Elia Braguzzi, Wine Expert, Rocolo Callisto

"If you're in the industry, this event is an absolute must-visit. Highly recommended!"

Rob Cole, Senior Wine Advisor, Bacchus Fine Wines

"Yesterday I attended the London Wine Fair and it was one of the most inspiring days of my wine journey so far. I was able to taste amazing wines, from so many different regions and producers, as well as attend #winetastings and panel discussions with some of the most influential voices in the world of wine. It was fantastic to see a diverse range of products, and to see everyone come together to share their passion for this industry. What was perhaps the most inspiring thing I took from this event is that, no matter age or experience or ethnicity or background, in wine we are in a constant state of learning, and growing, and that with every new vintage we have the incredible opportunity to broaden our knowledge; there is no such thing as a wine expert, only wine lovers."

Pierre Anderson, Logistics Manager, Cult Wines

"It was a pleasure to exhibit @london_wine_fair this week and launch our collection of Provence Rose! What a success it was, we look forward to seeing you all again next year."

Monte Carlo Wines

"Incredible few days meeting with new and existing customers! We loved every minute of it!"

Bálint Veér, Managing Partner, Fine & Craft

"London wine Fair has proved its claim to be the most intelligent show. Lots of expert conversations. Most inspired by the actions of the sector for sustainability, diversity + wider responsibility (of which we were flying a flag)."

Nicola Bates, Director of Strategy & External Affairs, Portman Group

"We managed to meet every single one of our GM buyers this year at the London Wine Fair, and a good number of our potential ones too. One buyer even made a handover to her new colleague with us on the stand, which was lovely, and we toasted her success together! But even better than this, at no point during the show was our stand empty of genuinely engaged visitors, which was a truly energising experience for myself and the team."

Rob Malin, CEO & Co-Founder, When In Rome

"I'm feeling especially galvanised after a fab few days at London Wine Fair - thought provoking discussions from a fantastic range of speakers/panellists."

Sonia Holman, Researcher & Strategist, Sonia Holman Consulting

"I had a couple of really useful meetings in the space of a few hours. I wished I could have spent more time there which I will do next year. Thanks for organising."

Nicolas Rezzouk, Buyer, Reserve Wines

London Wine Fair 2022 What an experience – so many wines – so many people – so many countries – a fabulous way to discover and connect."

Karolina Tingsnaes, Content Creator, Karo loves wine

Hello and welcome to the 41st live edition of London Wine Fair!

With so much to see and taste we have put together this onsite newspaper to help you navigate the UK's biggest and best wine trade event. This year we have over 80 sessions and on-stand activations happening across the Grand Hall. With the seven theatres carefully distributed amongst over 400 exhibitors.

For those of you who are returning visitors, you'll notice our new and improved floorplan layout. Do pick up a pocket showplanner guide for your own map to carry with you.

Inside this newspaper you'll find a timetable for all of the tasting and panel sessions for each day. Please note that many of the sessions are "Walk-Up". These operate on a first come first served basis and thus don't require pre-booking. If you are really keen to attend a session that required pre-booking it is worth queuing for a "wait list" position, just in case a space becomes available.

You'll also find our carefully curated 3-page list of "Unmissables". Do try to check off as many of these as possible!

Not content with "just" filling three days onsite with terrific content for you, we've also compiled a superb list of venues that you can head to for an after-show livener each evening...plus we've included the right name to drop when you get there.

This year, for the first time thanks to the pandemic, we are absolutely thrilled to be able to announce all the category winners of LWF's Wine Buyers Awards on the Centre Stage. Please join me, Chris Losh, the sponsors, media partners and all the shortlisted candidates to find out, not only who has taken the top spot for each category, but also the winner of the over-all competition. This is happening at 1pm on Centre Stage on Tuesday 16th May. See you there!
